

Sunday 2nd May 7.30pm The Sociable Plover

A superlative mystery comedy thriller set in a bird hide on the Suffolk marshes. Following his superb performance of Under Milk Wood last year, Guy Masterson returns in a two hander with Ronnie Toms. Tim Whitnall's play is a wrought, taut, exquisitely balanced black comedy that keeps the viewer glued to the seat until the final full stop.

A multiple five star reviewed show at the Edinburgh festival 2009

Tickets £9, £8 Children £4

Friday 7th May at 7.30pm

Barbershopera II

Barbershop's funniest quartet. Three guys and a girl tell the tale of a matador who moves to Norfolk - expect laughs, tears and stampeding cows.

*'A feast of frenetic ridiculousness and technically superb singing' - * (Scotsman).*

Tickets £8, £7 Children £4

In association with Carn to Cove

Friday 9th July BBC Radio 4's Any Questions

The Tolmen Centre plays host to a live broadcast of one of Radio 4's longest running programmes.

Friday 16th July at 7.30pm Steve Sogo and Hope Street

Coming to us straight from WOMAD, Steve Sogo and Hope Street. He is a young and very dynamic musician from Burundi who took to the guitar in the middle of the civil war to express his wish to live and to live a normal life. This music is pure, original blues. His songs are a cry for life, full of pain and hope.

Steve Sogo makes acoustic, hand made music that can be perfectly combined with African traditional sounds in a perfect reflection of his cultural identity and heritage.

Tickets £9, £8 Children £4

We have a number of free tickets available for under 26's for each performance. Ask for the scheme when you book.

The Tolmen Centre
Fore Street
Constantine

Falmouth TR11 5AA

Tel: 01326 341353

e-mail : tolmen@constantinecornwall.com

www.constantinecornwall.com

THE TOLMEN CENTRE

January - July 2010

Constantine's Art and Community Centre

Saturday 16th January 7.30pm
James Sherwood
At the Piano

A well respected writer and performer for radio and television, James Sherwood entertains with a brilliant demonstration of his keyboard's demo button, misheard lyrics and many more songs that show off his talent as both a composer and comedian.

Tickets £8, £7 Children £4

Wednesday 20th January 7.30pm
Harold and Maude

First in a new series of Film Night. Why not book a table at Cafe Tolmen for a meal before the film? Tickets £3

Saturday 23rd January
Talk and Taste Day

Our annual celebration of Cornish character and creativity.

Friday 5th February 7.30 pm
Cube Theatre

The Locksmith's Wife

Every week the Locksmith's wife reads aloud the next instalment of Dickens' latest story to an assortment of characters who may have walked out of his novels.

But when she falls sick, the Locksmith has to step into her shoes and fiction and reality blur as they find themselves facing their deepest secret.

Tickets £8, £7 Children £4

Friday 26th February 7.30pm
Helston School Jazz Band

A wonderful concert by the acclaimed Helston School Jazz Band in aid of the Heritage Centre and the Tolmen Centre.

Tickets £5

Tuesday 9th March

Feast Another chance to revel in the multifaceted talents of Constantine.

Saturday 13th March at 7.30pm
Linda Marlowe
The World's Wife

A new adaptation of Carol Ann Duffy's poems, imagining the wives' perspective of famous men. From Mrs Faust and Frau Freud to Queen Kong and Mrs Midas, this darkly funny show slices through history and myth.

Photograph by Faye Norman

'Performed with awesome style and confidence by the splendid Linda Marlowe... wonderful' Observer

Tickets £8, £7, Children £4

Saturday 20th March

Leap Community Choreography Project

A weekend event at the Tolmen Centre and Jubilee Wharf offering creative dance workshops for all ages. Even if you have never danced before: babies, teenagers over 50s all are welcome. Tel:07876 205050.

Friday 26th March at 7.30pm
Portico Quartet

A great welcome back to Portico Quartet, who wowed everyone with their sell out show last year. With their second album just released, we look forward to another sensational evening

"A phenomenon in the making"... The Independent

Tickets £9, £8 Children £4

Saturday 10th April at 7.30pm
Guitar Spectacular

Following the success of last year's Guitar Symposium a return visit by Ben Salfield, Horsemen of the Apocalypse and the wonderful Cristofaro/Ramelli Duo.

Tickets £9, £8 Children £4

Friday 23rd April 7.30pm
Johnny Cowling

In aid of Save the Children

Johnny Cowling has been an entertainer for over ten years with a unique blend of humour, music and a rare ability to bond with his audience.

One of our great undiscovered comedy talents...brilliant - a true entertainer, who could make anybody laugh." Fern Britton

Tickets £8, Conc. £7